Paper No./Mail Date _____.
7.  Examiner's Amendment/Comment
8.  Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance
9.  Other _____.

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claim 64, the reason for allowance is the claim recitation setting forth the first attachment angle of the first resilient cornering holder is larger than the corresponding first interior angle of the first corner of the window frame, the second attachment angle of the second resilient cornering holder is smaller than the corresponding second interior angle of the second corner of the window frame, the third attachment angle of the first resilient cornering holder is diagonally positioned to the first resilient cornering holder is larger than the corresponding third interior angle of the third corner to the window frame, the fourth attachment angle of the fourth resilient corner holder is diagonally positioned to the second resilient cornering holder is smaller than the corresponding fourth interior angle of the fourth corner of the window frame, which by comparing the dimensions of the corner holders with that of the angles formed by the corners of the window frame sets forth that this claim is drawn to the combination of the sunshade with that of the vehicle window frame, all of which is not disclosed nor fairly suggested by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
